Insurance

Northcote Stud has extensive Public & Employers Liability cover, but we must remind everyone that dealing with horses is a high-risk sport.

We have many safety rules in place but we have no intention of following clients around to remind them of the necessity for safe horsemanship (E.g. headgear, gloves, footwear, body protectors etc).

Safety is your responsibility and we will not be held responsible under any circumstances for anyone who chooses to ignore the rules.

Note:

Whilst we are dog lovers, we feel it is best that dogs are not allowed to roam.
